

Aged Care & Disability Support Bundle

Course Guide

Aged Care & Disability Support Course Bundle

Aged care and disability support focus on helping people maintain their independence, wellbeing and quality of life. Support workers assist people with everyday activities, provide personalised care and help them stay connected to their families and communities.

This bundle will take you through the fundamentals of individualised support, communication and safe work practices before exploring specialised skills in aged care and disability support. It provides a broad foundation covering the knowledge and practical skills needed to begin exploring opportunities in the care sector.

Once you have completed the bundle, you'll have a foundation to explore opportunities in aged care, home care and disability support, or continue your studies towards an accredited qualification.

Perfect for people passionate about helping others, supporting their independence and making a positive difference in their everyday lives.

About us

Careers Collectic is about practical education with a focus on providing courses relevant to real life. We help you gain the knowledge, skills and confidence to try a new career path, broaden your professional development, start a new business or explore a passion and deepen your understanding in a special interest.

Careers Collectiv was founded by a family who are passionate about providing quality education, accessibility for everyone and the flexibility to work at your own pace and in your own time. They have over a decade of experience in the online education sector after establishing a college specialising in the beauty industry.

Our teachers

We only use teachers who are active in their specialised industry. Learn from people who have first-hand experience in their subject matter and current industry expertise. Staff come from varied backgrounds with teaching and vocational experience from universities and vocational colleges. Courses provide flexible options for different career pathways, self-improvement, professional development and general adult education.

We give our students the skills, tools and structure to learn in real life situations without compromising on academic excellence.

Recognition

All Careers Collectiv courses come with a certificate of attainment upon completion.

Our courses are accredited with the International Approval and Registration Centre (IARC), a non-profit association providing a quality control system for education programs and courses in international education.

Aged Care & Disability Support Bundle

3 Courses

200 Hours

Build practical skills to support others in care

This bundle will build your knowledge from the ground up in aged care and disability support, helping you understand how to support people with their individual needs, independence and wellbeing.

The Complete Care Bundle includes 3 online courses covering essential skills in individualised support, aged care and disability services. You'll develop practical knowledge to help prepare you for a range of roles across both sectors.

Who is this course for?

This bundle is ideal for students looking to start or transition into a career in aged care or disability support. It's also a great starting point for people returning to work, family carers or those looking to build a foundation before pursuing further accredited study.

This bundle has 3 courses

- Aged Care & Disability Support (core)
- Aged Care Specialisation
- Disability Specialisation

Learn from experts in their field who guide you to see, do, think and experience learning on your own terms and at your own pace.

A well rounded learning experience

The Aged Care & Disability Support Bundle gives you a comprehensive introduction to the knowledge and practical skills used to support people with different needs, abilities and life experiences.

This bundle provides a broad foundation across individualised support, aged care and disability services, helping you build the knowledge and confidence to explore opportunities in either sector or continue your studies towards an accredited qualification.

Assignments

Each unit includes video lessons, a workbook with practical tasks, a knowledge quiz and a written assignment. You'll apply your learning through activities such as case studies, scenarios and reflection exercises, helping you develop your understanding of the skills used in care and support settings.
